GANS IS BIG FAVORITE OVER BATTLING NELSON

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2.—The sale of seats for the Gans-Nelson fight continues heavy, and from present indications a $55,000 gate is a certainty. All the cheaper seats have been disposed of and the sale of the higher-priced chairs is proceeding briskly.

Unless there is an improvement in the betting situation, the contest for July 4 will go into history as the lightest, from a speculative standpoint, in the history of championshin battles. There is ample Gans money in sight, but the Nelson end is inconsiderable. The odds of 2 to 1 on Gans still predominate, and in some instances bets are being made that the champion will win inside of twenty rounds, for which even money is the ruling figure.

MR. SULLIVAN RECALLS INCIDENT IN HIS LIFE

Forty-eight years ago today James W. Sullivan, who for several years has been a resident of Salt Lake City and is a well-known citizen, started east from what is now the site of the city of Denver. Mr. Sullivan was the owner of an ox team and possessed a pair of overalls and a hickory shirt, all his belongings having been lost in an attempt to ford the Platte river. After being out a day he was overtaken by several other persons, who were eastbound, and together they made the journey to the Missouri river, thirty-one days being required to make the journey. At that time Mr. Sullivan believed that he had all the mountain experience, as also mining experience, that he wanted. Later on in life the desire to again live in the mountains took possession of him and he, with his family, emigrated west, coming to Zion. Mr. Sullivan is hale and hearty, and is apparently good for many years to come in this most beautiful city in the great Rocky Mountain empire. Forty-eight years ago today James W.

MARRIED IN MAY, DIVORCED IN JULY, IS THE RECORD OF THE WATTERSON'S

The brief, but stormy honeymoon of Charles P and Sibyl L. Watterson was terminated in the equity division of the Third District court Friday afternon, when Judge Morse granted the bride a decree of divorce upon the ground of cruelty.

The Wattersons were married May 19, 1908, but they encountered squalls immediately after embarking upon the matrimonial sea, and several days ago Watterson sued his bride for divorce upon the ground of cruelty. He alleged that she had struck and buffeted him in the face and had otherwise mistreated him. Mrs. Watterson came back with a vigorous cross-complaint, in which she charged failure to support and cruelty. She alleged upon the stand Friday that her husband supported her for a few days after their marriage, after which he wanted to give his money to his children by a former marriage. She also testified that her husband had struck her a number of times and used vile and abusive language to her.

Watterson was not in court and did not defend himself against the charges made against him in his wife's cross-complaint.

In fact, testimony was introduced to ted the truth of the charges embraced in the instrument.

Mrs. Watterson's testimony was corroborated by Mrs. Anna Jensen. S. J. Jacobson then testified that he heard the cross-complaint read to Watterson, and that Watterson admitted the truth of the charges. Upon the showing, Judge Morse entered the decree in favor of Mrs. Watterson.

Miller S. Webb asked for a decree from Myrtle Huff Webb, on the ground of desertion and got it. The Webbs were married August 30, 1905, and Webb testified that his wife left him June 24, 1907. She went to the coast presumably on a visit, Webb said, and declined to return to him after her arrival there. Since leaving him, Webb said further, his wife had lived at Los Angeles and Long Beach, Cal.

Cora Edna Chandler told the court that she was married to Harry Butler Chandler November 21, 1906, and that he had failed to support her since Sep-tember, 1907. Chandler is capable of earning from $75 to $100 a month, his wife said, but he was under the influ-ence of liquor a greater portion of the time. Mrs. Chandler's testimony was cor-roborated by Ida Chandler, a sister of the defendant, and the decree was en-

Charles A. Buchanan told the court that he had married Georgia Buchanan August 18, 1900, and that she deserted him without cause in St. Louis, Mo., four years ago. This testimony was corroborated and Mr. Buchanan was set free.

Ella S. Dean, who was married to James M. Dean at Provo, December 25, 1904, testified that her husband deserted her January 26, 1907, and had since failed to support her and their child, the latter now being a little more than two years old. It appears that Dean went to Kansas and his wife did not know where he was living at the present time. Dr. J. S. # Mexican Mustang Liniment

THE antiseptic qualities of this old reliable household remedy make it safe and sure in all cases of Burns, Cuts or Sores. It soaks straight down to the bone and soothes the quivering, injured flesh. Mexican Mustang Liniment heals the wound from the inside, expelling all foreign or poisonous matter. It does its healing in a perfectly natural way and removes all stiffness of the joints or limbs while a cure is being effected. 25c., 5oc. and $1.

THE common ailments of your Horses and Cattle as well as their accidents need attention promptly if loss of services or a worse calamity is to be averted. Mexican Mustang Liniment rubbed on their legs and shoulders will strengthen and keep them limbered up. It takes only a few minutes a day but pays you well. Directions with each bottle describe its use for all the afflictions of Horses, Mules, Cattle, Sheep and Poultry or any animal that walks.
